POPULAR MEETING.

Over Two Thousand Persons Assemble on Palace Square.

They Pass a Resolution Upholding th Oueen and the Government.

Nearly two thousand people of all nationalities assembled on Palace Square yesterday afternoon pursuant to the call of a Committee of Law and Order. The Square was fairly packed, and it is believed it the largest mass-meeting ever held here. Seated on the platform were Hons. J. A. Cummins, J. E. Bush, J. Nawahi, W. White, G. P. Kamauoha, A. Rosa, R. W. Wilcox, C. L. Hopkins and others. Shortly after 2 o'clock, Hon. A. Rosa was introduced as the first speaker. He stated that the meeting had been called by citizens who had nearest their heart love for the Hawaiian All that was asked was that remain peaceful. Hawaiians known the world over as a peaceful and quiet nation, and he hoped they would continue so, notwithstanding the hubbub and goading surrounding them at the present The meeting had not been called in opposition to the one in the Skating Rink, but as one that had for its object the lesson of "peace, be still." Nothing of a revolutionary nature will be said but all will be for the preservation of law and order. They (the speaker and others) had been advised by prominent citizens to call the meet ing for the object stated. The committee had also consulted other prominent citizens with regard to the matter. The main thing was to avoid any friction that would cause In view of this gathering had drawn up a resolution which he would present. They proposed that the gathering support the Queen and the Government. (Cheers). The speaker then read the following resolution: Resolved, that the assurance of Her Majesty the Queen contained in this day's proclamation is accepted by the people as a satisfactory guar-antee that the Government does not and will not seek any modification of the Constitution by any other means than those provided in the organic law. Resolved, that accepting this assurance the citizens here assembled will give their cordial support to the Administration and endorse them in sustaining that policy. Hon. J. E. Bush said that he had the honor of again speaking before the people and again in favor of the Queen. He had the honor to support Her Majesty's actions in the past few days. They (members of the Legislature) had been dismissed, but that which the people wished for-a new Constitution-has not been secured. We failed in the House and sent your petition to the Queen. It again failed, notwithstanding it is the declared wish of the people from one end of the land to the other. He advised all, however, not to be hasty. Be patient and all will come out right. When justice is so perverted as to disfranchise the son of the soil, is it not time that they should ask for a new Constitution? Who has the most right to ask? When the Queen saw that the boon which her people asked could not be granted her heart overflowed. Now she is condemned by a handful of people without trial, without justice. He was blamed as not being loyal to the Queen, but there were other ways besides one of being loyal. Her Majesty has given all assurance that the matter will be referred to the next elections. Hon. W. White was introduced as "Oily Bill." He kept the assemblage in good humor for some time, at intervals calling for cheers, which were given with a will. Mr. White wound up his remarks by referring to a report in the morning paper in which it was stated that he had called on the people to enter the Palace and kill the Queen. It was false. The other fellows, meaning the Reformers, are crying out before they are hurt. Hon. Jos. Nawam said that he was loyal to the Queen and supported her actions. Hawaiian have always upheld the dignity of the Crown from time immemorial. Be peaceful, and as the scripture says, "Love your enemies." He proposed addi-tions to the resolution, firstly, thanking the Queen for her action on Saturday and secondly, assuring her of the support of the Hawaiian peo-

Hon. Geo. P. Kamauoha said it was very gratifying to see such a large assemblage present. He was told that the white mechanics of the country were in sympathy with them. Hon. R. W. Wilcox thanked all for their kind attention and urged the necessity of being peaceful, and nate from their lips. There are reports flying around about the over the taunt of the late trouble. Any man that would speak against a woman, especially a Queen, is an animal, and a fit companion for a hog. Three cheers were then given

A. Rosa referred to the proclama-tion issued by Her Majesty in the morning. Through the proclama-tion they had secured peace and now the government has been recognized by the representatives of foreign countries. He spoke against anything revolutionary, as it would make matters similar to those in Samoa lately. He then asked for three cheers, and before the meeting dispersed the resolution was again adopted.

Nine people out of ten will accept the assurance of a person using an article rather than listen to the man who is selling the goods. Realizing this to be a fact we buy good things and rely upon their good service to advertise for us, as in the case of the Aermotor and sundry 548-tf other specialties which we have put before the public. The result is that the people from Niihau to Hawaii sing the praises for us.

We have a corner on the best brands of Manila rope. We sell it lower than any other good rope can be sold in Honolulu. Private families have little use for it, but plantations and vessels do. We Niu Lea or Dwarf Cocoanut can supply them from the smallest size up to 9-inch.

"Women be they of what earthly rank they may, however gifted with intellect or genius, or endowed with awful beauty, have always some little handiwork ready to fill the tiny gap of every vacant moment. A needle is familiar to the fingers of them all. needle is familiar to the fingers of them all. A queen, no doubt, plie: it on occasion; the woman poet can use it as adroitly as her pen; the woman's eye, that has discovered a new star, turns from its glor, to send the polished little instrument gleiming along the hem of her kerchief, or to darn a casual fray in her dress. And they have greatly the advantage of us in this respect. The slender thread of silk or cotton keeps them united with the small, familiar, gentle interests of life, the continually operating influences of which do so much for the health of the character, and carry off what would fluences of which do so much for the health of the character, and carry off what would otherwise be a dangerous accumulation of morbid sensibility.
